

Executive Proclamation

State of South Dakota

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, On April 12, 1947, a boy child was born and christened David Volk; and,

WHEREAS, David grew to manhood in Mitchell, SD, and received diplomas from Notre Dame High School and Northern State College; and,

WHEREAS, David has served and has been re-elected to the Constitutional Office of State Treasurer for four consecutive terms. He has proved to be a leader in the management and investment of funds, attributing his statistical analysis successfulness to the "21" factor and Mark Meierhenry; and,

WHEREAS, David has served all of us as a good and trustful friend, but his usefulness is drawing quickly to a close since he has approached the age of Geritol, dentures, prunes and Medicare; and,

WHEREAS, David Volk has reached his Fortieth Birthday, an event which has ended his trustworthiness and relegated his social life to rocking chairs and lap rugs, replacing youth and skill with old age and treachery; and,

WHEREAS, It is fitting and proper for the governor to proclaim to all of South Dakota that David Volk is just plain OLD:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, GEORGE S. MICKELSON, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim April 13, 1987, as in South Dakota, and I urge all of Dave's many friends and relatives to mock him and rub it in, because he is now a member of good standing of the "Over-the-Hill Gang".

DAVID VOLK IS OVER THE HILL DAY

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Governor's Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this First Day of April, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-Seven

GEORGE S. MICKELSON, GOVERNOR

ATTEST:

Joyce Hazelton
JOYCE HAZELTON, SECRETARY OF STATE